SECRETARY: The Historical Monuments

SECRETARY: There's an enquiry report in on the anti-Draconian riot in Peking last week. The petitioners seek your support for compensation.

PRESIDENT: Pass that on to the Treasury with my recommendation.
All claims to be sympathetically considered. Anything else?

it's extremely urgent.

work with a man like that.

PRESIDENT: General Williams? I don't mind him. In a way we're very old friends.

SHEILA: (PUZZLED) I'm very sorry, Madam.....

PRESIDENT: Many years ago, just before the Draconian war, we met on the peace delegation.

(ONTO P. 5)

PRESIDENT:(CONT): The peace delegation
- the one that was supposed to prevent the war from happening.

5. 4 A
MCU PRESIDENT

SHEILA: Everything went wrong didn't it? I remember we read about it in school...

PRESIDENT: We were to meet the Draconians in a neutral planet. I was political aide to one of the senators. John was a young officer then./

PRESIDENT: Just before the rendezvous-point, we ran into a neutron storm.
The ship was damaged, many of the officers killed. John was left in command. It was a terrible responsibility for a young officer. A damaged ship, full of Earth leaders... and suddenly we saw a Draconian vessel approaching.

8. 1 A
2/S SHEILA/PRESIDENT

SHEILA: But you were expecting the Draconians.

PRESIDENT: We expected an unarmed Civilain ship like ours. This was a Draconian battle-cruiser. It came closer and closer. We signalled them but there was no answer to our signals./ John became convinced that they were going to attack us - that the whole peace meeting was a trap to destroy Earth's leaders.

SHEILA: But if your ship was unarmed ...

PRESIDENT: He let it come close, then manoeuvred our ship and blasted them with our retro-rockets. Their power-source exploded.

SHEILA: And the Draconians?

PRESIDENT: Totally destroyed. From then on we were at war.

SHEILA: So it was all General William's fault?

/S/B TK 37/

PRESIDENT: I certainly thought so at the time.

SHEILA: And now?

/RUN TK 37/

12. TELECINE 3: (TK 37) DUR:

Ext. Prison.

The OGRONS, with DOCTOR WHO and JO as their prisoners, emerge from the gate and come along the concrete walkway.

CUT to a wall, over which EARTH GUARDS appear and open fire.

CUT to the OGRONS who return the fire and try to hurry DOCTOR WHO and JO away.

CUT to more EARTH GUARDS arriving. The OGRONS are forced to fall back.

CUT TO DOCTOR WHO, who jumps the OGRON guarding him and fells him after a brief struggle. DOCTOR WHO grabs JO and drags her to a safe place, out of the line of fire. DOCTOR WHO and JO crouch down.

CUT TO GENERAL SHOT. The OGRONS are forced to beat a retreat.

CUT TO DOCTOR WHO and JO in their hiding place. The battle seems to be over and they rise cautiously.

CUT TO EARTH GUARDS covering DOCTOR WHO and JO.

DR.WHO: That's very trusting of him. From the looks of him, I'd have thought he'd want something more substantial than promises.//
